

WASHINGTON WATCH WITH TONY PERKINS

BROADCAST MEDIA KIT

About Tony Perkins:

President, Family Research Council

Former President, Council for National Policy

Vice-Chairman, U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom

Host, national, syndicated, daily radio show Washington Watch

Host, national, syndicated, daily radio/TV program Washington Watch

Former Louisiana State Representative

Member, 2012 & 2016 Republican Party Platform Committees

Marine veteran

Former police officer

Ordained minister

Board Member, local pregnancy care center

Twitter: @tperkins

Facebook: facebook.com/tony.perkins1

TOPICS OF EXPERTISE

Tony Perkins is a distinguished and highly sought-after conservative voice who regularly appears on national news programs and talk shows. As president of Family Research Council and a former elected official with a background in law enforcement, Perkins has long been described as an effective communicator and legislative pioneer able to provide a unique perspective on a variety of issues. Using biblical principles and his own personal experiences, Perkins can serve as an authoritative resource on and speak to such topics as listed here.

GOVERNMENT PROCEEDINGS

As a former Louisiana state representative, Perkins is well versed on political matters. During his time in the legislature, Perkins authored numerous policy initiatives, including one of the nation's first comprehensive abortion clinic regulations and genetic non-discrimination acts. Perkins has also had an integral role in campaigns that encourage values voters to vote according to their beliefs, and he is active in the election process.

PRO-LIFE MOVEMENT AND FAMILY VALUES

For many years Perkins was considered the leading pro-life voice in the Louisiana Legislature where he frequently advocated for family values. He also addressed the destabilizing effects of no-fault divorce on marriage and family. In 1997, he drafted the nation's first Covenant Marriage Law. Perkins can discuss the impact and goals of the pro-life movement and the importance of strengthening marriage as it was designed by God.

MILITARY, LAW ENFORCEMENT MATTERS

With knowledge and experience as a veteran of the United States Marine Corps and a former police officer, Perkins is able to provide a different take on the public policy process and matters of public discourse. Additionally, he oversaw the anti-terrorism training of hundreds of international police officers as a contractor for the U.S. Department of State.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

In addition to serving as president of Family Research Council where religious freedom is a top tier issue, Perkins is a Commissioner at the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom. Perkins has played an important part in advancing religious freedom at home and abroad. Most recently, Perkins was involved in securing the release of Pastor Andrew Brunson who was held captive in Turkey for two years.

GLOBAL EVANGELISM, MISSIONARY WORK AND MINISTRY

Perkins is active in several Christian ministries and frequently speaks at churches across the nation. Additionally, Perkins is an ordained minister, and board member of a pregnancy care center. Perkins has built a major network of tens of thousands of pastors and churches, encouraging them to enlarge their impact on the nation. As such, he is able to be a resource on evangelical issues and ministry matters that take place around the world and provide a Christian perspective on national news headlines.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

LIVE SHOW

MON–FRI

5PM–6PM ET

Weekend highlights broadcast show available

To learn more about carrying Washington Watch with Tony
Perkins, please contact:

Chris Curry

Director of Broadcast Relations

SHOW FORMAT

Washington Watch with Tony Perkins broadcasts live at 5 p.m. EST, weekdays, and is re-aired later by many stations across the country. Frequent guests include political leaders and statesmen from across the country, along with newsmakers, ministry leaders, and everyday citizens. In addition to discussing topics of the day, experts join the program to explore how we can address and act on these issues according to a biblical perspective.

Washington Watch Weekend Edition features highlights from the prior week. Episodes are featured in our Archives and listed as the Saturday editions at tonyperkins.com/archive

The Washington Watch Minute is a 60-second commentary aired on weekdays, where Tony quickly covers news highlights for the day or unique stories of Christians standing for their Faith, Family, and Freedom.

LEARN MORE ABOUT TONY PERKINS

tonyperkins.com/tony

PAST INTERVIEWS

tonyperkins.com/clips

STATIONS CARRYING WASHINGTON WATCH

tonyperkins.com/stations

WASHINGTON WATCH WITH TONY PERKINS

Powered by Family Research Council
800 Radio Stations and TV Networks | Nationally Syndicated Radio/TV Program

SAMPLE THE PROGRAM

WASHINGTON WATCH WITH TONY PERKINS
tonyperkins.com

STAND FIRM App
To download go to frc.org/app on your mobile browser

*News headlines available for our TV/Video partners